Financial Services Guide

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is designed to clarify who we are and what we do, and help you decide whether to use our services.

To make things simple, this guide explains:

- the services and types of products we're able to offer you
- how we and our associates are paid and any other benefits we may receive
- any potential conflicts of interest we may have
- how we protect your privacy and handle your personal information
- how we resolve disputes, and what you should do if you have one.

Please read through the whole FSG, as it's full of useful information – and is also worth holding on to for future reference. And of course, if you ever have any questions, please contact us.

Other documents you may receive

In addition to this FSG, if we provide you with financial advice we will also present you with a written Statement of Advice (SOA).

This will describe:

- advice and strategies we recommend and the reasons why;
- the financial products and services we recommend and the reasons why;
- any fees or commissions we will receive; and
- any associations we have with financial product providers or other parties that may influence the advice we provide.

After that, any time you receive further financial advice from us, we will either provide you with another SOA or give you (or keep our own) written Record of Advice (ROA). You can request a copy of this by contacting us any time up to seven years from the date of the advice provided. Please refer to the "Contact us" section of this FSG for our contact details.

To help you make an informed decision about a financial product you generally will be given a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) which outlines the product features and costs in detail. In certain circumstances it is not a requirement that you be given a PDS (including, for example, where you already have one).

Giving us instructions

If you want to make changes to your financial plan or provide other instructions, please contact us. Please refer to the "Contact us" section of this FSG for our contact details.

Generally, you will need to give us instructions in writing (eg fax, email or letter) or another method agreed with us.

About us

Who we are

At CommonCents Financial Planning we want to improve the wellbeing of all Australians by making a lasting positive difference to family life. We deliver common sense financial advice that allows you to stop worrying about money, enjoy lasting financial security, and start living a richer life.

Our common-sense method has been developed and proven over 20 years of real-world application and is based on our philosophy called Know > Change > Do.

It starts with finding out what you do “know”, what you don't “know”, and then teaching you the fundamentals that you need to “know”.

Once you know the fundamentals we will work closely with you to identify what you specifically need to “change”. Any meaningful improvement in any area of your wellbeing is going to require “change”.

After change comes “do”. It is not enough to simply gain some new knowledge and identify some things that need to change - you need to take action - you have to consistently “do” it.

This holistic approach delves deeply into your views and relationship with money and makes your financial health and happiness our sole focus.

This insurance also covers the conduct of our advisers who were authorised by GWM Adviser Services at the time of providing the advice, but are no longer authorised representatives of GWM Adviser Services at the time of your complaint.

Payments and benefits we receive

You can pay for the services you receive on a fee for advice basis. This allows you to know that you are paying for our advice irrespective of any product you use, clarifies the services you are entitled to, and ensures all recommendations are driven by your needs.

We will agree with you the amount you pay based upon:

- a flat dollar fee;
- an hourly rate;
- the amount you invest; or
- a combination of the above.

You can pay in the following ways:

- by direct invoice from us;
- as a fee for advice that will be deducted from your investments as a one-off payment or in instalments;
- via commission we may receive from a financial product provider when you commence an investment and ongoing commission during the life of the investment;
- via commission we may receive from a financial product provider when you commence an insurance contract and ongoing commission annually during the life of the insurance contract; or
- a combination of the above.

If you are not already on a fee for advice package, you can move to this payment at any time.

Please refer to the “How we charge for our services” section of this FSG for further information.

Other payments we may receive

We will provide you with details of all fees, commissions or other benefits we may receive when we provide advice to you and, where possible, will give actual dollar amounts. If we cannot provide this accurately, we will provide worked-dollar examples.

Even if you don't receive personal financial advice from us, you can still request the details of any fees, commissions or other benefits we receive in relation to any other financial service we provide you.

Benefits we may receive

Sometimes in the process of providing advice, we may receive benefits from product providers.

Conferences

We may attend conferences and professional development seminars that have a genuine education or training purpose. GWM Adviser Services Limited, or our employer, may pay for the costs of our travel and accommodation, and events and functions held in conjunction with the conference or seminar.

Non-monetary benefits

We keep a register detailing certain non-monetary benefits that we receive e.g. benefits valued between $100 and $300, and those that relate to genuine education or training and technology software or support.

You can view an extract of the register by contacting us. Please be aware that GWM Adviser Services Limited may charge you for the cost of providing this information to you.

Sponsorship

GWM Adviser Services Limited receives cash payments from product providers who sponsor and attend training presentations, conferences and/or professional development days. Amounts vary between product providers and CommonCents Financial Planning do not directly share in the sponsorship payment; however, CommonCents Financial Planning may indirectly benefit as these payments subsidise the costs associated with these training and professional development events.

CommonCents Financial Planning believe that GWM Adviser Services Limited should not receive these sort of payments as they are in fact a poorly managed conflict of interest. The preference of CommonCents Financial Planning is that the onus is on GWM Adviser Services Limited to provide education and training on a user pays basis therefore all training received by CommonCents Financial Planning is paid for by CommonCents Financial Planning and not by an unrelated third party.

Referrals

Referrals from a third party

At present we do not have any referral arrangement in place to receive referrals from third parties in return for payment or other benefit. If this changes, we will make you aware of this prior to providing advice, or further advice, to you.

Referrals to a third party

At present we do not have any referral arrangement in place to provide referrals to third parties in return for payment or other benefit. If this changes, we will make you aware of this prior to providing advice, or further advice, to you.

Business Equity Valuation (BEV)

In the event of our death or permanent disablement, or if we were to leave the financial planning industry, GWM Adviser Services Limited provides a buyer of last resort option called BEV. This helps manage the transition of ownership to ensure you continue to receive advice.

Our business operates in a corporate structure. This model is less likely to be eligible for BEV as all the Principal Advisers in our business would have to either leave the industry, die, or become permanently disabled.

The value of a sale under BEV is based on a multiple of ongoing revenue received by the business on an annual basis. The multiple can range from 2.5 to 4 depending on the proportion of the ongoing revenue that comes from clients who hold MLC group financial products.

Here are some examples to help you understand the potential benefit to us of our clients holding MLC group product:

- If the ongoing revenue of the business was $100,000 and 50% of our clients held MLC group products, the sale value for the financial planning business would be between $250,000 and $350,000;
- If the ongoing revenue of the business was $100,000 and 85% of our clients held MLC group products, the sale value for the financial planning business would be up to $400,000;

Importantly, BEV is subject to us meeting certain compliance requirements and standards.

How we charge for our services

All fees and commissions are inclusive of GST and the fees could be greater than those disclosed below in complex cases. In these instances, we will inform you of the exact fee payable promptly in writing.

Initial (Discovery) consultation	This consultation is at our expense
Advice preparation & Implementation	If you elect to pay us a fee for advice the following fees will apply. The fees will depend on the size of the investment portfolio and the complexity of the advice: The minimum fee charged is $4,400 while the maximum fee is $10,000. For example complex advice that contain multiple goals, strategies and/or tax structures including but not limited to; self-managed superannuation Funds, family trusts and companies, are likely to be charged closer to the maximum. Less complex advice that addresses limited goals, strategies and tax structures are likely to be charged closer to the minimum.
Ongoing fee for advice	If you elect to pay a fee for the ongoing review of your financial planning strategy, the ongoing fee is based on the complexity of ongoing advice and the services provided. The minimum fee is $3,960 while the maximum is $14,900 each year. The ongoing advice fee will be based on the level of service needed and the complexity of the advice. Complex advice requirements include the use of trusts and ownership structures, overseas assets or incomes, executive options or multiple investment entities. The frequency of the review will also impact on the fee charged.
Ad hoc advice	We do not provide ad-hoc advice for those not part of our ongoing advice programmes
Insurance products	From January 1st 2020, we will not accept any commissions on new insurance products arranged by us. Instead we will charge a fee for advice and implementation relating to your insurance needs and rebate in full any commissions to you. In practice this rebate results in an approximate 30% premium discount for the life of your insurance policy. For existing insurance clients and on existing insurance products (where the commission cannot be rebated under product rules established by the Insurer) an ongoing commission between 0% and 33% of the annual premium for as long as you hold the product, may be paid to CommonCents Financial Planning. This commission covers future claims support and general administrative services that may be provided by CommonCents Financial Planning - but does not entitle you to ongoing financial advice or review services. Commissions are paid to us by the product provider and are not an additional cost to you.
Pre-existing arrangements	For existing clients already in an established commission arrangement, we may receive commission on investment products or margin lending products held. For investment products the relevant product issuer will pay initial commission between 0% and 5.5% and ongoing commission between 0% and 0.88% of the value of your investments for as long as you hold the product. For margin loans the relevant product issuer will pay an ongoing commission between 0% and 0.88% of the outstanding loan balance. Commissions are paid to us by the product provider and are not an additional cost to you.
Annual Advice Agreements	You can elect to enter into a 12 month Annual Advice Agreement as part of your financial planning strategy so you can receive advice services such as a meeting to review the progress of your plan. Details of the services will be set out in your Annual Advice Agreement. The fee can range from a minimum of $3,960 while the maximum is currently $14,900 per year. The fee applied will be commensurate to the level of service needed and the complexity of the advice provided and will be outlined and agreed with you in the Agreement prior to commencement or change.
